

Please do not override the Indiana law regarding telemarketers. We have a very good law that has stopped the phone calls at the most inoportune times. Let the states handle this as the residents of the states want and do not add a watered down law that will be hard to inforce on the national level. Thank you, Dan Harsh